

Prelude

Blood is the scent of a dream that I had of an arrow shot in my head still was there when I aimed to make my dreams come true

Broke off the tail and wiped up the trail of the hole in the wound when the excision failed and covered it up with powder and glue

Like a chickenless head living amongst the dead run around with my arrow in head cannot get my head around where to be or where to go to

And from sweven to day a transition has yet to take place hear my name being called through the haze "Oh arrowhead belay dreaming why won't you?"

Wrong Sea

Went across the ocean clinging to you I had steps to take a death to fake all the while clinging to you

Down with a fever named after you failed to be new

You're a treasure quested for in the wrong sea I never wish to find you anyway Hesitation
has a hold on me you're just the reason why I can't come to reason wish you were more to me Hesitation

The sea has always been endless and the end has always been near The sea has always been endless and the end has always been everything

Caught, it's not over remained Life has me harvesting stains but HEY WAIT!
See I found out your name HEY WAIT! my obsession will fade some day I'll be well on my way
but hey wait!
hey wait!

If this remains my main state of mind a quarrel with moments in time a battle will become of this life, a battle in your name, hesitation any name

Gone Strange

Now that I've gone strange
I wanna leave all the way
all the way

mirrors don't recognise my face
I wanna look away Since you broke my flow it's become so easy to let go don't wanna grab don't wanna hold on to anything nobody ask nobody know just what is good for me nobody you nobody me now that I've gone strange

Simple Truth

A string of a thought of a hope that has passed of a fire I felt in his mind didn't last has me hung up and blue

And now that it seems all the matches are burned it's no secret we'd match but I've learned to just let a good moment go

So I'm displaying my wit to a party of none since I've warned everyone that I can't be the one he must have figured it out and bearing in mind just how wrong it could feel just how dark it could be all there is to reveal it's a simple call, but this fool can't change cannot change at all it's a simple call, but this fool can't wait no I want it all it's a simple truth, but this fool remains a fool

The songs and the booze and the road and the truth and the poems he wrote and the smoke in those rooms where neither of us belonged The love in the head and the head in the hands and the hands on his neck when he feels he'll regret that his feeling at all

The dream of the life that you wanna lead despite all my blinds despite everything I'm familiar with it and I want it all

Getting to know the wreck that I am how long will it take until I understand that a change is really due Arrowhead needs to wake up Arrowhead cannot wait up for you and that is the simple truth it's a simple truth, no this fool can't wait cannot wait for you

no I want it all
it's a simple truth, but this fool remains a fool
a fool
a fool

Moonhowl

I wished on the moon and the moon wished back And the tree in the street hurled it's branch for a smack My tooth fell out and my mouth filled with blood I had wished on the moon for someone to love Wish in the works, heart nearly stopped Eyes filled with tears, mouth filled with blood Face nearly dropped My tooth in the street got crushed by a car I stopped crying, toothless, in love with the moon and the stars.

Touching Air

Won't you stop letting me down,
Won't you stop letting me down
Why can't it be easy Why can no one please me?
Won't you stop letting me down
Won't you stop

They're all the same with their heads down and their eyes fixed on no way they're all as lost as me Reach out my hands to find my fingers are touching air it's all the same no one to blame, no one to root for

Won't you stop letting me down...

Come on, choose a name for it safe to evade but this is real life and that means safety will be limited they're all the same, forgetting what they came for Do you not get?
It is forever goodbye if you choose not to change my mind
Do you not get?
That it is every time we part, forever goodbye

Won't you stop letting me down...

Can't be cheering without arms, touching air
Give me a reason to be there 'cause I can go anywhere be anyone oh won't you stop oh won't you stop letting me down

New Skin (Shed It)

Now it's under my skin and I can't move on so I gotta shed it now the world's gone small and I've nowhere to belong gotta shed it and his eyes burned and his words are burned in and it hurts
how my guts churned when I let him walk that moment will never return I will regret it

Now the world just turns in direction downward everyone want everyone have everyone be everything now so claim your life is special until you're free of doubt SHED IT

find as many hands as you can to cheer the truth you shout

how it saturates and implodes at dawn how it all spills out in a ceaseless yaaaaawn I've seen this I've seen this I've seen it all gonna shed it

Gonna be newborn in a brand new ward

Reminder

Remind me what it's like to care for no one, only one
to catch on fire and crash and burn Don't remember what it's like Reaching over after night not checking, hoping For a stranger to be gone, not there, nowhere at all

an echo to each smile not a sob inside not one day behind take me for a drive

lost in each others eyes somewhere along the line the moment will arrive when you'll remember

I'm only a reminder you'll do right by her again I'm only a reminder
you have found it somewhere else

Just A Fever

Lose when you're dreaming, lose when you lose you dream of leaving, I dream of you

Been lost a long time, now I don't know how to meet in the moment, so I look down shared a moment looking down I'll shake my fever, if you let me be it's just a handshake, it's just a dream it's just a fever

I'll guard my temper

I can forget you, just haven't tried meet in the moment, as if there was time

I'm bound to leave here, you born to roam it's just a handshake, it's just a home
it's just a fever
it's just a fever, i'll let you be it's just a handshake, it's just a dream
