

Vanish

Don't need your help to vanish
I was never who you knew
I've forgotten all about it too

Drawing life-lines straight as arrows you stay where the warm winds blow where my memory's dissolved with the one of other headless souls and each questioning reveals whether real or in my dreams that I was never there with you that I've forgotten all about it too

Running over mountain chains, erase my traces on the way

From a long gone, knocked down wall the one piece that can't help recall all that made us drift apart this is me without my scars that is me without my scars this is me a piece of wall

And I don't need your help to vanish
I was never who you knew
don't need your help to perish I've forgotten all about it too

Fighting with my memories tales of how you had me weak when my hate is at it's peak then I am almost back to zero
and they're only in my dreams that we cannot go back to zero

Don't need your help to vanish
don't need your help to perish I've forgotten all about you too

Running over mountain chains,

Flowing

Wail along, departed friend in your arms and out again we have reached another end so reach out again

I'm swaying as if made of air since I've waded out from here a wave has come and swept all clear yeah it's all clear

No surface that can keep me in no anchor that will hold me down no one to keep me from flying now is there no one now?

I would storm in
"cannot be leaving here" but all is flowing and all is possible again

Pinned my hope on a new face oh so vain and out of place just an illusion supposed to keep me safe yeah I am saved

I would always cling as if the truth was a belonging of mine close my eyes and my desires in as if the infinite could be made into size yeah I would hold it all in but of course the wave proved me right 'cause all is always flowing and all is possible again so wail along wail along

I would storm in „cannot be losing you“

but all is flowing

Great big heavy

I am close to you and I am close to forgetting too why I hold you here waiting for all this time to get over get over

but still we are at peace impossibilities kept from our minds with inner fights every moment each moment and the feeling isn't mutual and I think you don't have a clue and I know just why I don't tell it all 'cause my secrets they are lethal and what I'm dreaming of

I cannot say to you

Said keep me from the rain and keep me from the change ahead of you cannot lose it all not when the sky is falling in too 'cause it's been so long that I've been putting holes in you selfless you, lovely you my one and only you

and this asymmetry's not new this heavy rock we're building on this heavy weight not new

So tell me what to do tell me what to do tell me where to go when I'm leaving you
these thoughts I cannot mute so tired of being torn of being torn in two and the truth is that I've left it all I have left myself in you waiting for the wave, the waterfall to sweep me in as I am dragging on and the truth it is a heavy heavy heavy rock and I'm standing on the edge of the waterfall and wait for me to throw it off and I'm looking down and I see signs and I see flaws and like sudden rain all that I have suppressed it is now coming on because for some time now I have been hearing the call

"cannot lose it all"
oh but I do.

Apocalypse blues

And you're reading the bad news trying to feel haunted but the sun is shining through underlines your countenance

And I'm going for a walk and every downward step I'm taking suits the dreamer I've become now that there is no awakening

And I'm breathing the fresh air because our forests aren't waning and the paper that I read is writhing on the pavement yeah

So I'm invited just to talk about the plans and fears inside me but I am keeping my mouth shut 'cause I do not care what it's gonna be Yeah she had pretty words for ugly truths

I just shrugged and let her continue
and she'll be straightened out when she reads the news

I'll keep collecting my debris and I'll keep finding places for it but the hopelessness in me that is one thing that don't go unreported uuh yeah aah ha

You have plans and you have counterparts your future is state of the art but your skull is shining through and you can see me smiling in the dark

You walk pregnant with new life the flood you're baby's facing suits the swimmer that I am when it comes to heavy changing Cause my friends are all knocked up coming up with names for theirs but my baby is insane that's why it's been aborted yeah I threw my love away my baby is aborted

Never came around

The kind of love I'm looking for can never be found I'll meet you once, I'll meet you more but I never come around

Met him on a dark night he had holes in his shoes I had holes in my soul there were holes in my blues So I claimed him a target shot him right down said I would love to meet you again almost believed it myself but I never came around

Met him on a loud day with a sky all brand new full of doors and disasters still some holes to my blues There in the dark light his eyes flashing mine I was holding my breath to the beat of my heart trying to just freeze time but the future not waiting sent moments and moments that stabbed from behind said I would love to tell him the truth 'bout myself but denied my wish 'cause of pride and said this

The kind of love I'm looking for can never be found I'll meet you once, I'll meet you more but I never come around See the kind of love I'm longing for doesn't lie with you I'll treat you right, I'll take you home but in the morning we are through

If this were about who breaks who then I bet my life it would be you when being of ice is my only virtue then there is no morning to this when I wake on my own and my thoughts are as black as the night sky oh I remember when I was young I gave my heart to a stranger oh how fast he could run took me to the dark places as if he'd known that it's where I belong and I have never left there since he ran and put in me the words to this song

The kind of love I'm looking for can never be found
I'll meet you once, I'll meet you more but I never come around See the kind of love I'm longing for always goes away I'll take you out, I'll take you home and then I will forget your face
said I'll meet you once I'll meet you more

China Made Love

When I was born
I was wrapped in you I learned your language when you taught me to oh how I felt young when I walked with you not free but carefree until I questioned you

I have questioned you

And since my second birth I have been watching you and I've learned to focus on what I cannot do and what I cannot change to be entwined with you when I don't have your presence then I'm free of clues

I am free
I am free
but I'm not free

Don't you know that I can't be without your china made love
Don't you know that I cannot be...

Now when you hurl at me those shirts and nails then I have your presence like a faceless stain and my hope is lost can't be regained this world is lost and it can't be saved

And god's wrath it never rained on me though I'm not all that I could be no the sky never fell down on me and that's as bad as it can be

And I know just what I want to criticise but when I use your language I don't see eye to eye and I am kept from speaking because I'm satisfied

I am satisfied
nothing to wish for now

Don't you know that I cannot be
without you without your
china made waste
china made nails china made walls china made war
china made waste
china made

Flesh and Bone (Helpless Times)

Flesh and bone helpless sighs
I've always known
I would go wrong so wrong

Helpless times have me tied going down with the earth I'm walking on

I went far to see another side to my reality to find what's left of me and now my days are drained of aim and I am always last to leave 'cause I got no one in my company

No one above me time on my side the future bright casting it's shadow over me back on my own it's been so long it feels impossible but I've always known I would survive without you here went too far and I've reached the end of our reality thought I would be at ease once I retrieve what is the core of me but now I'm last to leave 'cause I got nothing in my company

*You got me running not coming back
You got me changing I'm coming back*

Now that I'm lost in a voided day to day I did not know I would be restless for so long my aching bones I'm really losing you going wrong but I'm still going on Promise to the night

I made a promise to the night and now I'm really trying to keep it and actually it's easy I simply don't inhale the breath of all exaggerated tales and I'm the only one so I get lonely just a little bit lonely

The tears appear against my will so I let god into my heart but still it feels empty I pour some ink into my skin and swear to love and to forgive always

You let me down but it's alright I leave you there with twinges by your side and I'm sorry 'bout that but I made a promise to the night you can break yours but I'll keep mine I'll keep it
I'll keep it
I will

You say I'm weak I wish I was but none and all of this is forever lost so I don't bother at all
so I don't bother at all

I don't bother

And at the moment I am crying but it's just a state of mind soon over and I'll be lonely all my life but that is just a thought of mine soon overthought then I'll be singing all the time while this is just a song of mine soon over and I'll be lonely all my life but that is just a little time soon over

It soon is over
It soon is over

Magic Friends

To all my magic friends it's going up again you're all under my skin it's growing back again

To all my magic friends with your healing space in hand if this healing ever has an end it's only thanks to you so sorry for the worries that put you through but it wasn't me the devil threw me on the tracks to help me get back on my feet seems it takes a fire to show me that my life's still in my hands you wanted me to be inspired world here I am

It's tempting to explain sudden changes in the open rain sudden choices that will make a black and white sky turn to grey with destiny, enlightenment and laying cards and then believing in god again but mind you I haven't changed I believe in all my magic friends only in my magic friends
